Native American and First Nation Figures in Sculpture: North American Monuments, Memorials and Statuary of 50 Artists
Fred F. Poyner IV

This new book examines sculptors both old and new, and how the work of each one has presented Native Americans and First Nation figures found throughout the public sculpture of North America over the past 200 years.

4Culture of King County has provided support for the book with a 2023 Heritage Project Award, with additional support made possible through the Washington State Arts Commission.

Author Fred F. Poyner IV is an independent historian and author who enjoys researching and writing about the art and history of the Pacific Northwest, including public sculpture. He is currently a Grant writer for the Sauk-Suiattle Indian Tribe (Sah-ku-mé-hu) in Washington state, and a regular contributor to The Filson Journal since 2019

He is the author of three other books about public sculpture history of the Pacific Northwest, with Native American and First Nation Figures in Sculpture: North American Monuments, Memorials and Statuary of 50 Artists his eighth book publication
